

Beauty & Wellness: Classes of Business

Eligible Classes of Business

Eligible classes

Beauty Salons and Barber Shops

Nail Salons

Day Spas

Body Piercing Studios

Health & Fitness Centers

Electrolysis Centers

Eligible classes may include

- Aesthetics, such as facials, peels (no medical grade), microneedling, lash extensions & lifts, brow lamination, red light therapy, LED teeth whitening, spray tanning, dermabrasion, permanent jewelry
- Hair removal including waxing, threading and electrolysis (no laser hair removal)
- Massage therapy (no hot stones or fire cupping)
- Skin and body treatments, such as herbal and seaweed body wraps, paraffin wraps, sea salt scrubs, enzyme, mud baths, compression boots, infrared saunas/blankets/wraps, BrainTap, float tanks/sensory deprivation, body contouring
- Tanning booths
- Meditation and other holistic forms of stress relief such as aromatherapy, reiki, acupressure, chakras
- Health and fitness centers may include aerobic dance classes, cardiovascular training, weight training, pilates, yoga and nutritional and weight-loss programs (no medical weight loss).

Eligible classes may sell retail products, including hair, skin and nail care products or consumable products such as vitamins and supplements.

Ineligible Exposures

Stand-alone massage therapy risks or operations that are primarily massage focused

Childcare services or children's playgrounds

Overnight lodging

Tattooing or tattoo removal

Chiropractors or other operations with medical professionals performing services

Swimming pools with diving boards or diving wells

Acupuncture

Hypnosis

Oxygen therapy

"Young-Blood" or similar transfusion and stem cell therapies

Whole body cryo chambers

Sale or on-site consumption/use of steroids

Unusual body modifications, including but not limited to:

Scarring

Implants

Teeth sharpening

Botox or other injectables and/or fillers

Hormone therapy pellets

Trampoline parks

Sports rehab/injury treatment facilities

24 hour gyms

Cross-fit gyms

Personal training of college or professional athletes